

NGO FORMARE STUDIA

has the pleasure to invite you to the International Workshop on

QUALITY IN ADULT EDUCATION

12-19 MAY 2013

IASI, ROMANIA

Target Group:

- members of adult educational organization: managers, trainers, responsible with quality assurance, responsible with educational programs;
- adult education advisers
- adult learners interested in quality in adult education
- adults interested in opportunities for quality lifelong learning.

We expect you to participate in the whole training!

Participants from ALL EU COUNTRIES, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, Switzerland, Turkey and Croatia are invited to apply.

In addition, participants from the host country, Romania, are also welcomed to apply and participate, but they cannot receive financial support.

If you are an adult learner interested in learning about quality in adult education and sharing your experience with others we invite you to apply!

The working language is English. The participants are expected to be able to work in English

Themes of discussion:

- Quality management systems – Fundamentals and vocabulary;
- National policies in the field of quality in adult education;
- Quality evaluation models applied to the evaluation of adult educational organizations;
- Self-assessment processes in adult education;
- Strategies for Stimulating Quality in Adult Education;

Scientific event: Participation at the International Conference “Quality in formal and non formal education”

Details about the organizer of this workshop:

www.formarestudia.ro

Workshop Expenses:

There is no participation fee. Accommodation and food is provided by the organisers. Please note that the travel expenses from your departure city to Iasi, will be reimbursed within the limit of 398 EUR based on the least expensive airfare.

Application deadline: 31 January 2013. Please send the application form duly completed and signed by email at dan@formarestudia.ro

Contact person: Dan Irimia